	MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD
STAT	SUBJECT: Melding of the Economic and Energy NIO Accounts the Re-Assignment of
STAT	1. In light of Mr. Critchfield's decision to retire prior to 1 July 1974, the decision has been made to merge the duties of the NIO for Energy with those of the NIO for Economics. This was Mr. Critchfield's personal recommendation and a line of procedure which independently decided would be the best way to handle the matters in question. It has been discussed with the DCI, who gave his approval on Friday, 7 June. The DCI was concerned whether would have enough help and support in discharging both sets of responsibilities. I explained to the DCI why we thought the arrangements outlined below should be adequate but promised that if they were not we would request further assistance which he, in turn, assured me would be authorized.
STAT STAT	2. For the time being, will try to handle both accounts with only one Assistant: Mr. will be returning to OER to take over the International Transportation Branch. OER was anxious to have him back to take this assignment and after careful reflection, decided that this was also his personal preference.
STAT	3. The structure of the new combined account and the support it will entail, particularly in light of transfer back to OER, was discussed in detail in telephone conversations with Mr. Ernst and Mr. Walsh on 3, 5, 6 and 7 June. In return for our
